

1. GENERAL

Bh International Momsagentur ApS hereinafter referred to as 'BHI', 'we' or 'us', may use cookies, pixel tags and similar technologies in connection with any use of the bhi.dk, hereinafter referred to as 'Website'.

These technologies are used to make your experience on the Website smoother and more enjoyable, to solve technical problems, to tailor the content of the Website more closely to your needs and preferences, and to distinguish you from other users. This cookie statement ('Cookie Statement') contains more information about the use of Cookies (as defined below) and the possibility of blocking Cookies at any time).

A cookie is a text file that is placed on your mobile or desktop device by an application or web page when you use that application or web page. For example, cookies may automatically recognise you on your next visit and allow you to customise an app or website so that it reflects your interests more closely, remember your language preference or store your password so that you do not have to re-enter these preferences every time.

Cookies may be placed by BHI itself, as controller, or by others with whom we collaborate ('third-party cookies'). Such cookies contain a unique code that enables your device to be recognised when you use the Website (a 'session cookie') or during subsequent repeated use (a 'persistent cookie'). The Website may also use similar technologies (such as scripts and pixel tags) that work in a similar way (hereinafter collectively referred to as 'Cookies').

This Cookie Statement, applies to our Website, bhi.dk. Personal data can be processed through the use of Cookies. More information about the processing of personal data in the context of the Website may be found in our 'Privacy Statement'.

2. COOKIES USED BY THE WEBSITE

2.1 Type of Cookies

It is important to know that essential Cookies may be placed without your consent, whereas your consent is required for the use of analytical Cookies, marketing Cookies and other non-essential Cookies.

BHI only uses Essential Cookies on the bhi.dk Website. Essential Cookies are necessary to use the Website (and/ or certain functions you request). They allow you, for example, to navigate between the different parts or to complete forms. Because they are technically necessary, these Cookies are subject to an information obligation only, and are placed as soon as you use the Website.
